

COLLEGE FOOTBALL RECAP WHO WON WHAT?

The 2004 college football season is finally history. While the seniors have turned in their gear and most are looking forward to graduation, other players are hitting the weights to prepare for next season. And a relatively few – the best of the best – are hoping to take their game to the next level by entering the NFL draft. But before moving on to the 2005 season, let's recap what happened in 2004.

After all, apart from the winners of the National Championships and the Heisman, do you know who got what in the post-season awards? Who won the Bronko Nagurski Award, given to the nation's best defensive player? Or the Walter Payton Award, given to the nation's best I-AA collegiate player? How about the AP Coach of the Year? Did some players win more than one award? We have the answers.

WARNING

NEVER STRETCH AS A WARM-UP!

Many athletes and coaches often stretch as a warm-up exercise. This can be devastating - you never want to stretch a cold muscle. The reasons are clear - cold muscles pull. Always do a quality warm-up before you stretch. This gets the blood flowing and warms up the muscles so they can be properly stretched. There is nothing better than the BFS Dot Drill Exercise for doing this. Why? Because it can be done anywhere, it's quick, easy, and athletes love it! Get a BFS Dot Drill Pad today and start reaping the benefits such as increased speed, improved agility, knee and ankle injury prevention and more!
